Did You Know?

Today's cutting-edge, relevant career and technical education (CTE) prepares youth for high-wage, high-skill, and high-demand careers.
(Association for Career and Technical Education)

Graduating from a four-year college is not the only path to career-readiness.
(USA Today, January 20, 2016)

CTE features business partnerships, enabling clear pathways to certifications and degrees.
(Association for Career and Technical Education)

CTE programs help students explore careers and develop valuable skills – skills that are relevant, in high demand, and lead to high-wage careers."
(Dr. Vince Bertram, president and CEO of Project Lead the Way)

CTE prepares students to be college- and career-ready by providing core academic skills, employability skills and technical, job-specific skills.
