

Content	Title of Book / Author
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Research Main Subjects</li> <li>-Define vocabulary words</li> <li>-Identify story elements</li> </ul>
Skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Make predictions</li> <li>-Analyze characters</li> <li>-Read poems about Subjects</li> <li>-Create Subject posters using major themes from the novel</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Comprehension questions</li> </ul>
Assessments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Posters</li> <li>-Vocabulary quiz</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Comprehension questions</li> </ul>
Writing Tasks	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Journal entries</li> <li>-Reflection paragraphs</li> </ul>

This is the original rubric / strategies that Dr. Raymond Kettel used for his creation of the Author, Specialist, Knowledge (Project) Program in 1998.