

Essential Literacy Practices for English Learners, Grades K-3
Considerations for Teachers of ELs using the Essential Instructional Practices

July 17-19, 2018

8:00 am-3:00 pm

Cost: $75

Educators will participate in three full days of deep learning about the essential literacy practices and effective strategies to foster literacy and academic language development in English Learners, grades K-3.

Participants will receive a copy of the GELN Essential Instructional Practices in Early Literacy to plan responsive literacy instruction for K-3 English Learners (ELs). The focus of the document is on the ten research based classroom practices that when implemented with fidelity, can have a positive impact on literacy development for all students.

Passionate educators interested in collaborating to make their curriculum, instruction, and assessment more accessible and receptive to the unique needs of English Learners are encouraged to participate in this three day workshop!

Scaffolding Literacy Instruction for English Language Learners

August 7, 2018 ( K-2)

August 8, 2018 ( 3-5)

8:30 am-3:30 pm

Target Audience: Educators serving English Language Learners in grades K-5

This session is designed for teachers who work with English Language Learners that are searching for new and innovative ways to accelerate the literacy skills of students using the most effective practices. Educators will learn how to play to the strengths and support the literacy and linguistic needs of English Learners by scaffolding instruction in each of the five essential components of reading instruction; Phonemic Awareness, Phonics, Fluency, Vocabulary and Comprehension.

Passionate educators interested in collaborating to make their literacy curriculum, instruction more accessible and responsive to the unique needs of English Learners are encouraged to participate. Teachers will leave the workshop with easy to implement strategies and a plan for how to use them in their lessons.
