

Literacy Coach Professional Learning

As the literacy coach for the Macomb Intermediate School District, there are many ways I can support your school district teachers, and professional development with any aspect of literacy instruction as it relates to the Essential Literacy Practices and the Michigan literacy standards.

I am available to coach individual teachers or grade level teams and/or provide any of the professional learning below as it relates to the Essential Literacy Practices and the Michigan ELA standards.

Please complete the form and mail or email to May Manna Denha Ed.S at (mmanna@misd.net) or May Manna Denha, Consultant Services, MISD, 44001 Garfield Rd., Clinton Township, MI 48038.

I look forward to partnering with you to reach your literacy goals for students.

Sincerely,

May Manna Denha Ed. S
 K-3 Literacy Coach
 (586) 228-3464
mmanna@misd.net

Professional Learning Request Form
District:	Contact Person Email/ Phone:
Professional Learning Date(s):	Today's Date:
Anticipated Number of Participants:	Time Beginning: Time Ending:
Areas of professional Learning Activities
Coaching on building level needs: Co-Planning, observing, providing feedback, or modeling on school-wide goals	√
Coaching-focus on individual needs
Large or Small Group Professional Learning
Essential Instructional Practices in Early Literacy
Effective Instructional Practices for Teaching English Learners
Classroom Management
Organizing and managing small group instruction
Guided Reading: Differentiating Reading Instruction
Setting up Readers' or Writers' Workshop
Analyzing student data to drive instruction

