Positive Behavioral Interventions & Support and Social Emotional Learning Guide

SEL Curriculum

This year, our PBIS team has continued on our Little Spot journey with "The Little Spot of Feelings" series. We have created lessons in our news letter for each month, along with a full Little Spot library. This brochure will outline information you will need to know to have a SPOT -on year!

CLASSROOM IDEAS

- Emotion Check-in (a visual for students to check in with their feelings)
- Display monthly posters up in a central SPOT in your classroom for students to see/touch.
- Print individual emotion check-in wherever it benefits your students most.
- Create an SEL corner to allow students to identify their emotions and self manage those emotions using the tools found under resources.
- Checkout our SEL lending library
- Teach, practice, and review behavioral expectations of the 3 G's.

ABOUT

The Little Spot of Emotions Series

- Comprehensive Learning: The series weaves together fundamental alphabet learning with the vital ability to identify and articulate their emotions.
- Emotional Intelligence: Through the colorful & engaging pages, these books transform the process of understanding emotions into an exciting adventure.
- Empowering Guidance: Dealing with strong emotions can be challenging for our students. These books provide a gentle approach to comprehending and discussing feelings, offering a constructive way to navigate through complex emotions.
- Engaging Content: The characters of A Little SPOT make the exploration of emotions understandable. The students can connect with relatable characters and their feelings
